Vol. XLIII No. 1
OMAHA, NEBRASKA, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1963

University of Omaha To Greet New Students Sept. 11; President, Dean, To Speak in Field at 9

Freshmen students at the University of Omaha will begin their school year with a New Students Day on Wednesday, September 11th. Attendance at the day-long function is mandatory for all new students.

The day begins at 9 a.m. with an address from University President Milo Bail and from the Dean of Student Personnel, Donald Pflasterer. They will speak in the Field House to new students of the Colleges of Liberal Arts, Applied Arts, Education, and Business Administration who will be seated in their designated sections in the north bleachers.

Meet Deans

Following that, students will adjourn and meet at 10 o'clock with their deans and counselors.

At 11 a.m., bootstrappers will meet with President Bail in Room 101 of the Applied Arts building while other freshmen are to meet with upper classmen in rooms previously assigned. Here the student handbook will be discussed and questions answered.

Athletic Director Virgil Yelkin and Intramural Director Bert Kurth are scheduled to address male students in the Field House at 11:30 a.m.

One hour lunch breaks come at 11:30 for women students, and at noon for the men. Lunch is to be served in the Student Center.

Punch Party

New women students will meet at 12:30 to hear talks by Womens Recreation Association representatives and by Elizabeth Hill, Dean of Women.

At one o'clock, new students divide into assigned groups to meet in designated rooms for orientation talks by representatives of honoraries, special interest groups, publications, and others.

The day winds up at 2:30 with the President's Punch Party. All are invited by President Bail to the Student Center, first floor for refreshments.

OU Student Accident-Sickness Insurance Plan To Be Back Again

Omaha University's Student Accident and Sickness Insurance plan is entering its second year with another high enrollment expected.

The voluntary program, underwritten by Mutual of Omaha, had some 450 students enrolled last year; according to Mutual of Omaha, this was very good for the initial year.

The program is open to any full-time day student—that is a student who is carrying 12 credit hours or more a semester.

Coverage

The plan will cover serious injury or illness requiring hospital treatment or surgery. This is intended to help relieve the parent or student of the financial strain which normally accompanies this type of unanticipated expense.

The insurance costs $15.75, and begins September 10, 1963 or the date of enrollment in the plan, whichever occurs last. Coverage terminates September 10, 1964.

It covers expenses arising from both accidents and sickness, whether sustained at the University or elsewhere during the entire policy term. It will pay in addition to the other insurance coverage a student may have.

It should be noted that the policy does not cover practice or participation in intercollegiate sports. However, it does cover all intra-mural sports played on campus.

Application

A student may apply for the insurance coverage through October 20th, following the date of fall registration. If he does not take out the policy during this time, he may not do so for a full year.

A new feature of this year's progressive and imaginative GATEWAY will be the weekly selection of a "Co-ed of the Week" by our staff.

The young lady will be selected on the basis of poise, personality and beauty. Her picture and a brief personality sketch will be done in king-size form in the weekly edition.

Entrants must be submitted by any organizations on campus and this includes sororities, honoraries, ISA, O Club or the like.

Details on how to enter a candidate will be forthcoming in the next issue as well as entry deadlines.

This feature is one of many designed to promote Omaha University and will spread the word that we at OU do indeed, have the prettiest girls in the country.

Oh, yes, each candidate must have at least a 2.0 grade average if she is beyond her freshman year and must also be a full time student as described in University Rules.

Registration Begins Today; 1300 Frosh Boost Total to 9000

The University of Omaha will begin its fifty-fifth year of service to the city when it opens its doors September 16th.

Registrar Virgil Sharpe says his office expects between eight and nine thousand students to enroll at O. U. this fall. He said this estimate represents both full and part time students.

Thirteen hundred freshmen are expected to enter the University this semester. This is the same number of frosh that enrolled for the fall semester last year.

Night Registration

Registration begins this afternoon at four o'clock for those students taking evening courses only. Students taking any day classes whatsoever must register under the schedule for day students. There will be no mail registration for night classes.

Evening students must pay their tuition and fees in full at the time they register for classes. Those drawing class cards but who are unable to pay must forfeit the cards and begin registration over again when they are able to pay.

Counselors for all colleges will be available for night students during registration hours September 9-10-11 in the same rooms as listed below for day class registration.

Program changes may be made only on Saturday, September 14 from nine until noon. Monday, September 23, will be the last day that classes may be added to an evening schedule.

Day Class Registration

Registration for day class students who were enrolled at O.U. in the 1962-63 year will begin the morning of September 11 at eight.

Seniors, juniors and graduate students will register on the eleventh.

Sophomores and second semester freshmen will register on the twelfth.

New students who haven't registered during the summer, former students and transfer students will register on the thirteenth.

Students having to make emergency changes only in their schedules may do so the morning of the fourteenth from eight until noon. There will be no registration at this time.

Registration Times

Again, it should be noted that tuition and fees must be paid at the time the student registers unless other arrangements have been made with the cashier.

It is suggested that all students check their registration calendar for the proper time they are to register.

All students will follow this time schedule for each of the three days of day class registration. See Calendar on this page.

Counselors

Every student, after deciding on a class schedule, must have the schedule approved and signed by his counselor.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

Here are the rules governing refunds of tuition for Omaha University, effective September 1, 1963. NOTE THE REFUND SCHEDULE HAS BEEN CHANGED AND THE SCHEDULE IN THE GENERAL CATALOGUE IS NO LONGER VALID.

Refunds are computed from the date the application is received by the Registrar, not from the date of withdrawal from classes?

Refund slips issued by the registrar and given to students are void and not redeemable, unless presented to the cashier (Business Office, Room 230) within 30 days after the date of issue.

A student must file notice of withdrawal from any class, accompanied by written approval of the adviser and the Dean of Student Personnel, with the Registrar immediately upon dropping any course.

Students paying tuition on an installment basis who withdraw before the account is paid in full are not relieved from payment of the amount due; credits to their unpaid accounts will be made only on the basis of the schedule listed below.

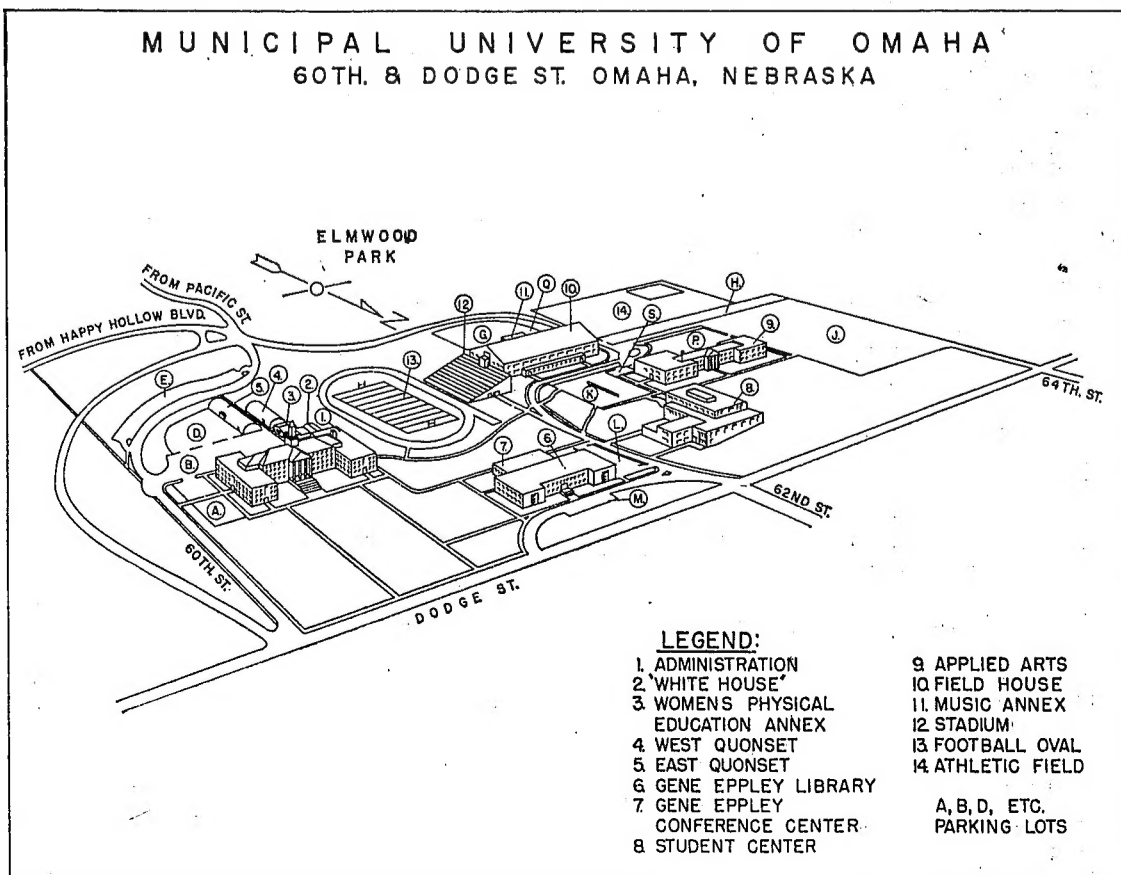

NO refunds will be made on matriculation, registration, late registration, health fee, or student activity fee, unless such charges have been made through an error of the University Administration.

A student dropping courses with the approval of his adviser and his dean will receive refunds on tuition, non-resident fee, and laboratory fees in accordance with the following schedules.

Under the new schedule a student must withdraw during the fourth week to get a redemption of 25% . . . after that time, there is no refund. Under the old system, 25% of the money would be refunded during the sixth week . . . for day classes.

THE OFFICIAL SCHEDULE

The trend to Deci-Lon is easy to see...easy to understand. This newest concept in slide rule design and operation has won enthusiastic approval among slide rule users.

Good reasons why: greater computing capacity, greater logic, greater consistency, greater everything important to efficient slide rule operation.

NEW! Now there's a Deci-Lon 5" for your pocket — a convenient auxiliary to the Deci-Lon 10" for your desk.

Rush Week Now On For The Sororities

Rush Week began Sunday with a formal coffee hour in the Student Center sponsored by the Panhellenic Council. Parties will be held nightly through Friday, Sept. 13.

Four sororities are participating in Formal Rush. They are Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Sigma Kappa, and Zeta Tau Alpha.

To be eligible for pledgeship in one of these Greek organizations, a rushee must be registered for at least 12 credit hours and with the Panhellenic Council for Rush.

Following the coffee hour yesterday, rushees were required to attend half-hour parties given by each group. All rushing is by invitation of the Panhellenic Council.

Invitations

Invitations for parties are to be picked up this morning between eight a.m. and noon in the SC Ballroom. After a rushee receives her invitations, she is to arrange a schedule and inform the sororities. No parties may be attended without an invitation and more than two parties with any group is prohibited.

Each party that a rushee accepts an invitation to must be attended, or the rushee is automatically ineligible for further rush. Parties on Monday through Thursday will be held from 7:30 p.m. to nine p.m. Friday the parties will begin at seven p.m. and end at 8:30 p.m. No rushee is to attend any other parties than these, and she is to leave as soon as the party is over.

A rushee is not obligated to accept all her invitations, and she does not have to schedule a party for every evening.

Dear Students:

Welcome to the University of Omaha. Our campus has many functions that students are unaware of and it is felt by many students and friends of the University of Omaha that unaffiliated students should be encouraged and helped as much as possible to participate in extra curricular activities.

We the Independent Students' Association, "ISA", are trying to establish the full social, civic, and cultural development and adjustment of unaffiliated students at the college level. A further purpose of "ISA" is to represent the University of Omaha throughout the community.

Our organization has participated in the annual Snow-Festival, the school dances, and the bi-annual Blood Drive. Every Christmas "ISA" has one extra special project that puts each student in the Christmas Spirit.

You are invited to attend our first meeting, September 25, 1963, at the Student Union. Posters will be placed around the campus to indicate the exact time and room.

Respectfully,
DON HOUGHTON,
President, ISA

No sorority is to have any planned entertainment and refreshments cannot be served.

Fee

The five dollar fee, paid upon registration for Rush, does not guarantee a bid by any sorority.

Rushees must indicate their preferences Sept. 14 from eight a.m. until two p.m. in the SC Student Organizations Room. Each girl is urged to sign three preferences. Bids will be mailed Saturday evening by Special Delivery. If no bid is extended, the rushee will be notified.

Any girl who drops out of rush or does not accept a bid will not be eligible for pledging for one calendar year.

Ribbons

Ribbons will be presented to the new pledges Sunday, Sept. 15 from one to 3:30 p.m. in the Student Organizations Room.

A tea will be held in the SC Ballroom for the new pledges during this time.

Dress for rush parties include skirts and sweaters or dresses and heels.

Sororities' Spring Pledges Initiated

Second semester pledges were recently initiated by the four social sororities at Omaha U.

Alpha Xi Delta activated five girls on Sept. 4 at the home of Sandy Croft. Carolyn Burdick, Carolyn Fowler, Carol Medley, Carol Peterson, and Linda Richards were initiated.

Donna Anderson, Linda Carroll, Phyllis Faasse, Leslie Hamilton, and Sally Shepherd became members of Chi Omega on August 30 at the home of Joann Vanderstoep.

First Federal of Lincoln was the sight of Sigma Kappa's activation on August 28. Pat Genge and Nancy Lunsford were initiated.

Four women became members of Zeta Tau Alpha on Aug. 28 at Trinity Cathedral. They are Kathy Fentress, Patty Goldapp, Gerri Lewis, and Carolyn Meester.

Automobiles Must Be Registered; New Bumper Stickers To Be Used

Rush Week Is Rolling For Frat Hopefuls

Fraternity Rush Week is now in progress on campus. It began last evening with the Interfraternity Smoker and will close Monday, Sept. 16.

Five national fraternities, Lambda Chi Alpha, Pi Kappa Alpha, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and Theta Chi, are participating in Rush.

Eligibility

To be eligible for pledging, a male student must be registered for at least 12 credit hours in the University.

Each rushee must attend five fraternity parties held from 7:30 p.m. to 11 p.m. on Sept. 9 through 16. He must register at each party. If he is unable to attend any one of the parties, he must present a written excuse to the Interfraternity Council explaining his absence. This excuse must be turned in to the Dean of Student Personnel Office, Room 250, Student Center, before preference day. It must be approved by the I.F.C. Failure to visit the parties or submit an excuse for absence will automatically disqualify the rushee from pledging for one semester.

Payment of the Rush registration fee does not guarantee membership in a fraternity.

No rushing is allowed from midnight to seven a.m. the following Monday through Saturday of Rush Week.

On Saturday evening, each fraternity will hold a preference party open to all rushees. The rushee may attend one or all of these preference parties.

Silent Day begins Saturday at midnight and runs through five p.m. Sunday. There is to be no conversation between fraternity members and rushees.

Preference

All prospective pledges must sign preference cards Sunday, Sept. 15 between one p.m. and four p.m. in the Dean of Student Personnel Office if they desire membership in a fraternity. All cards must be turned in before four p.m. or they will not be considered.

Once a preference has been made, it cannot be changed for one semester.

Rushees will be notified by five p.m. Monday, Sept. 16, if they will be pledged.

All students planning to park their cars on campus must register their vehicle and obtain a parking permit.

According to Mrs. Eunice Rowland, in the Dean of Student Personnel Office, the permits may be obtained only at the time of registration. She said they will be available in the hall just outside of the Registrar's Office during all registration periods.

It should be noted that students attending evening classes only must also register their cars.

New Permits

This year, a bumper sticker will be used instead of the window permit used in past years. The new sticker is to be applied to the left rear bumper of the registrant's car.

As this semester begins, there are 996 metered parking spaces on campus as compared to 905 last fall.

The number of free stalls stands at 409, down from the 542 available at this time a year ago.

The meters take only nickels and quarters. There is one hour of parking for a nickel or six hours for a quarter.

REGULATIONS

All students are asked to abide by the following regulations concerning travel and parking on campus.

The speed limit for vehicles on campus is 15 m.p.h. Parking meters are in operation from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., Monday through Saturday.

Cost of parking will be one nickel for one hour (any number of nickels up to six may be inserted for advance parking fees up to six hours), or one quarter for six hours. CAUTION: meters will not accept dimes.

Do not strike the meter. "Meter Beaters" incur our heaviest penalties (cost of repairs and revocation of parking permit).

Any person who notes a parking meter out of order should report it to the Campus Police, Superintendent of Building and Grounds, or the Dean of Student Personnel (Room 240) immediately. Do not wait until a ticket has been placed on the car.

No car will be permitted to back into a parking stall. Infraction of this rule will result in a fine.

Failure to report to pay fines as assessed within 48 hours for day students, or one week for night students may result in suspension from the university.

All cars must be kept between the lines marking the parking stalls.

No vehicles are allowed to be parked on the grass at any time.

VIOLATIONS

1. Overtime parking in metered area, $1.
 2. No valid University of Omaha parking permit, $1.
 3. Not parking within stall lines, $1.
 4. Backing into parking stall, $1.
 5. Failure to come to a complete stop at all stop signs, $1.
 6. Parking in reserved lots or other unauthorized areas, $5.
 7. Obstructing traffic, $5.
 8. Driving wrong direction on one way drives or in parking lots, $5.
 9. Speeding and/or reckless driving (maximum speed limit 15 m.p.h.), $5.
 10. Failure to yield right-of-way to pedestrians in cross walk, $5.
 11. Passing a motor vehicle, $5.
- Pleading ignorance of motor vehicle regulations is not accepted as an excuse for a violation.

'TV Classroom' Is Originating From Omaha U Studio In A A

The University of Omaha's "TV Classroom", which for 12 years has originated from the studios of television station KMTV, is now originating direct from the University campus.

The use of OU Radio-TV Department facilities for the broadcast began with the August 31st program on "The School, the Home, and the Community", taught by Dr. Sam Sollenberger. Last weekend, Dr. Sollenberger wound up 26 weeks of continuous 'classroom' instruction.

New Course

Starting on September 14th, a new three credit hour course on "Arts and Crafts" will go on the air. The half hour, 13 week long class will be taught by Miss Jane Andersen of the OU Art Department. The program begins each Saturday at 8 a.m.

Each broadcast uses Radio-TV Department students to direct, run cameras, and handle other equipment. The audio and video are then sent by cable to KMTV where they're broadcast to viewers over the regular transmitter.

Paul Borge, head of the Radio-TV Department, said the program is now being originated from OU because it was felt that such a move would provide "a great spurt in the interest of students" who want to go into broadcasting as a profession. He said this also gives the students a chance to get actual, on the air experience. He added that working direct from the campus makes for ease in preparation for the faculty and others involved in the programs.

Helps Dept

Mr Borge also said that doing this kind of programming puts the OU Radio-TV Department in a good position to provide preparation and production of educational broadcasts for Omaha's proposed channel 16 and other areas of the Nebraska State Educational Television Network.

Library with new additions — will seat 750 more students

Library Expansion Program Near End

The first part of Omaha University's expansion program to handle the student "explosion" in the coming years is nearing completion.

The two new wings on the Gene Eppley Library are expected to be completed in the latter part of December and should be open for student use after the Christmas Holidays.

The 48' x 112' additions will accommodate 750 additional students. The first floor will extend the periodicals room on the west and the reading and study area on the east. The second floor will increase the study area and open bookstacks.

In July of last year, OU received a $250,000 grant on a matching basis from the Eppley Foundation, Inc.

Dedicated in 1956, the library was a gift from hotelman Eugene C. Eppley. His personal check for $850,000 stands as the largest gift in OU's history.

Library Advantages Often Unrealized By Many OU Students

The library contains an estimated 145,000 volumes, 60,000 documents, and 970 periodicals.

The library is open to students from 7:30 a.m. to 10 p.m., Monday through Friday, and from 8 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. on Saturdays.

The library has open shelves to encourage study and browsing by the students and several special services and rooms are contained within the library.

One of these is the Adult Education Conference Center. It's located on the first floor of the south wing.

Audio-Visual Services

The other service is the Audio Visual Department, located in the southeast wing of the second floor. Films, recordings, tapes and audio visual classrooms are in this department.

The Curriculum Laboratory, located in the southeast section of the second floor provides special materials and study facilities for students in the College of Education.

Located on the same floor in the southwest section is the Library Science and Children's Literature Laboratory.

As in all organized institutions there are rules and regulations. For the library they are:

Rules and Regulations, Too

1. You must present a library card to check out books. One may be obtained when you register or later by presenting your student activity card at the central service desk in the library.

2. All books are checked out at the central service desk. Sign the lined book card with your name and telephone number before coming to the desk. Books are checked out for two weeks and can be renewed for two weeks provided they are not in demand. Circulation rules for books and fines for overdue books are listed in the section on reserve book service. All fines and charges must be paid before your academic record is cleared.

3. Books, magazines, newspapers, etc., are on open shelves. Read and browse but do not return them to the shelves. Leave them on the tables.

4. Smoking is permitted in the smoking study and in the east section of the lobby only.

5. Library telephones are not to be used for personal calls.

Sports Teams Hold, Resurge; Forecast Bright For Season

By Ken McEwen

Previous season records and the number of returning lettermen are usually the main sources relied on to make predictions of the upcoming season. Using this as a basis, Omaha University will witness an even better all around campaign than last years.

The football and baseball teams should have the toughest time improving their records. The reason for this being that both teams had excellent records last year.

Football and Baseball About the Same

The football team finished their season with a 7-1-1 record taking the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (CIC) championship. At the post season All Sports Bowl in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, they defeated East Central Oklahoma State University by the score of 34-21.

The baseball team should have a tough time beating its record of 21-2. Losing only to Washburn University twice, they tied for the CIC championship with that team.

Coach Virgil Yelkin will be missing the keystone combination of Bill Wachtler at second base and Joe Neuberger at shortstop. Ken Smith will be sorely missed in the outfield. Other than those three, who graduated, the team should be intact.

Resurgence in Basketball

The other major sport, basketball, has more room to improve than football or baseball. The team, under the direction of Jim Borsheim ended their campaign with a 10-11 record.

The record cannot be scorned, however. This is due to the improvement over the past several seasons. The 1961-62 season showed a 5-18 record. If Borsheim's club continues to improve like the last two years, it looks like a resurgence in basketball for OU.

Wrestling, the other winter sport, finished with a 5-6 record. George Crenshaw will be the big loss to the team as he and Jim Fuxa were two of the wrestlers that went undefeated. Don Benning, a former football and wrestling great at OU, returns to his alma mater as the head wrestling coach. He replaces Al Caniglia, who will concentrate on football.

Track and "The Rocket"

Then there's track and Roger Sayers. The two are just about synonymous at OU. A consistent performer in the 100 yard dash at about 9.5 seconds he has brought fame to himself and OU. He was invited to such meets as the Drake Relays, where he just nipped Nate Adams of Purdue University when they were both timed in 9.5 seconds in the 100 yard dash. He also competed in the Kansas Relays and the NAIA track championships. He captured both the 100 and 220 yard dashes in the CIC and the NAIA.

The golf squad, under the direction of Ken Fisher, finished with a record of 8-4.

Tennis was not as fortunate, finishing with a record of 2-8.

Support OUR Teams

This year, let's give OUR teams a little more support. They have both desire and talent and should put on a good winning show.

OU Has Size, Speed, Weight - Outlook Is Bright

By Mike Moran

Coach Al Caniglia and his staff took the wraps off the 1963 edition of the University of Omaha football squad Saturday for the benefit of the press and TV men.

The new edition is big, fast and experienced. It also has quite a record to live up to. The 1962 Indians finished 7-1-1 and added a 34-21 romp over East Central Oklahoma in the All-Sports Bowl at Oklahoma City on December 8.

OU was ranked number twelve in the final N.A.I.A. ratings and number sixteen in the A.P. small college poll. If statistics like these are your forte, then add one more; the team was rated the 116th best squad in the nation among all major and small colleges by the now famous Williamson rating system.

Highlights of the '62 season were the Bowl game and the 35-0 rout of defending small college champ Pittsburg State that gave the Indians their first CIC championship.

Losses Light

Gone from that squad are leading ground gainer Louie Miloni who rushed for 761 yards in 1962 and two time Little All-American end Paul Blazeovich, who led the CIC in receiving last year with 31 grabs for 531 yards and ten touchdowns.

Missing from the interior offensive line are Gary Baughman, Duane Salak, and big Stan Kurtz. Add defensive standouts Dave Gibson, George Payne, George Jesko and a little Dean Taylor to the absentee list and things sound thin.

Then if things look bleak to you, let's talk about the assets of the '63 squad, and there's plenty of 'em.

The backfield will return All-CIC quarterback Carl Meyers as the leader. Meyers was OU's total offense leader last year and is being boomed for All-American honors this season. The Omaha senior passed for 1,012 yards and rushed for 297 more in 1962.

Fastest of the backs is Rocket Roger Sayers, back for his fourth letter at halfback. Sayers was an All-CIC choice in 1961 but fell off his pace last year with injuries. He still accounted for eight touchdowns and 395 yards rushing despite seeing spot duty last fall.

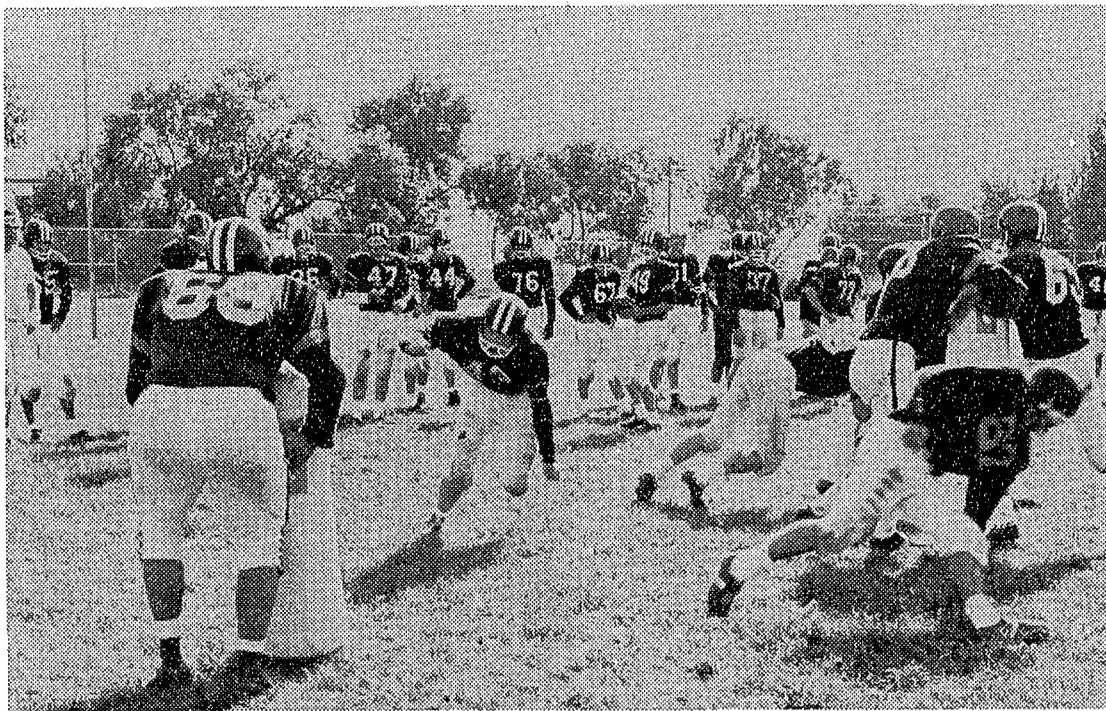

Lee Milner will hold down one halfback spot if things go right for the Midland, Michigan, senior. Milner rushed for 423 yards in '62 and demonstrated good hands in hauling down eight passes from the halfback slot, a position the Indians will throw to with more effort this time around.

Fullback is well fortified with the presence of three letter winner and second team all-conference choice Wayne Backes. The stocky Morristown, N. J. senior rushed for 412 yards last year and turned in a gritty performance on defense.

Backes' stand-in will be sophomore Gerry Allen, a boy from Massillon, Ohio, who coaches call one of the finest prospects to enroll at OU in years. Gerry lettered as a freshman and ran for 184 yards while turning in double duty as fullback and corner man on defense.

Defensive secondary standout Don Crum is being groomed for more ball carrying chores this year. The 185 pound soph showed good speed in early drills and will be counted on for two way duty.

Rookies expected to help in the backfield slots are: Duane Dummies take a beating as Indians prepare for opening game with Morningside.

McAndrews, a rugged plunger from Boys Town; Dave Nettleman, 165 pound scatback from Plattsmouth and Jim Rauch, a squad member last year who showed signs of being a great performer.

Quarterbacks behind Meyers are excellent. Junior Joe Benson, a former prep All-American from Paducah, Kentucky, will be back to continue his fine passing and rates a chance to spell Meyers more than in the past.

Shrine Bowl standout Marlin Bristoe from Omaha South has been impressive in early workouts but will be counted on for some halfback duty also. Bristoe and Nettleman performed for the winning South squad at Lincoln in August.

That Defensive Line!

The biggest asset in more ways than one for the 1963 Indians appears to be the ponderous defensive line which held opponents to 106 yards per game on the ground.

Heading up the beef trust is huge (6-5, 296) Jack Petersen. The hulking senior is an excellent pro prospect and will be seeking his third letter.

Good things come in pairs, and so OU has the Kadow boys, Brian and Kevin. Weighing in at a diminutive 258 and 265 respectively, the Chevy Chase, Maryland, seniors give OU the bulky interior needed to mess up enemy slants.

Joining Petersen and the Kadows in the massive interior is 266 pound Paul Limas. The stocky South grad is back for his third letter and joins the other behemoths to give OU the biggest defensive line in all of football.

Lightweights in the defensive forward wall are 245 pound Jim

Jones and 240 pound Tom Luby. Ends will be handled by Jack Kiscoan and Tom Wolff on the defensive side of things.

Kiscoan is a three year letterman who will give it a try on offense also. Wolff lettered as a freshman last year but must give more attention to his hands if he is to nail down the offensive end slot.

Jim Kettle is a cinch at one wing. The 217 pound senior was runnerup to Blazeovich with 12 grabs last year and is an excellent blocker as well as a fine linebacker.

Ron Eissler returns at Center for a second letter. The Nebraska transfer showed agility and finesse at the pivot last year and is another two way performer.

Line rookies showing promise are; Rex Sweetwood, 180 pound center from Omaha South and a Shrine Bowl standout; Maury Bantner, All-State guard from Omaha Benson; Joe DiMario, 255-pound tackle prospect from Kenilworth, N. J.; and Dick Wettereau, 195 pound guard from Mountain Lakes, N. J.

Transfers Help Guard Situation

Neil Galloway will be back for his third letter at offensive tackle. The New Jersey standout now teaches in Omaha and is looking forward to another great season.

Transfer guards will help ease an acute situation at that spot, made vacant by graduation and the failure of lettermen Ron Stave and Larry Von Tersch to return.

Harlan Aden from Scottsbluff J. C. and Jeff New from Sterling, Colo. Junior College are the rugged 195 pounders being counted on by Line Coach Don Watchorn to plug the gap.

Reed Shipman, a transfer from Trinidad J. C. is listed as a center but may bolster the guard corps.

All-Stater Don Loftus from Omaha South is on the guard roster and is expected to lend his 201 pounds to the offensive battering.

The 1963 squad has the new look in coaching. Louie Miloni and Don Benning join the staff in assistant capacities. Miloni is serving as halfback coach and
